

Ballarat Table Tennis Association

The Ballarat Table Tennis Association has seen a strong increase in beginner participation at its Wednesday night sessions. Notably, the group now includes a majority of girls and individuals from diverse multicultural backgrounds. This growth reflects the association's welcoming environment and targeted outreach efforts, fostering a space where newcomers feel comfortable and included. By offering structured yet relaxed sessions, the program has successfully engaged participants who may not have previously considered table tennis.

